

Workshop at University of Oxford Faculty of Law, 5 June 2015

(International) Legal Positivism: Custom, Interpretation and Subjectivity

Location: St Cross Building, St Cross Road, Oxford OX1 3UL | <https://goo.gl/maps/KUCGn>

Morning in the Cube | Afternoon in the White & Case Seminar Room

Programme

- 0915 Arrival (the Cube)
- 0930–0945 Welcome/Introduction
- The Organisers
- 0945–1115 Panel 1 The diverging foundations of legal positivisms
- Chair: Jörg Kammerhofer, University of Freiburg
 - Paper/speaker: Christoph Kletzer, King's College London
 - Commentator: John Gardner, University of Oxford
- 1115–1130 Coffee Break
- 1130–1300 Panel 2 Customs/Customary norms as foundation and/or source of law?
- Chair: Jean d'Aspremont
 - Speaker: Grant Lamond, University of Oxford
 - Commentator: Jörg Kammerhofer, University of Freiburg
- 1300–1400 Lunch (Seminar Room F)
- 1400 Reconvene (White & Case Seminar Room)
- 1400–1530 Panel 3 Interpretation and the variety of interpretive processes
- Chair: John Gardner, University of Oxford
 - Speaker: Jean d'Aspremont, University of Manchester
 - Commentator: Julie Dickson, University of Oxford
- 1530–1540 Coffee Break
- 1540–1710 Panel 4 Subjects of law or agents of (re)cognition?
- Chair: Antonios Tzanakopoulos, University of Oxford
 - Speaker: Janne Nijman, University of Amsterdam
 - Commentator: Leslie Green, University of Oxford
- 1710–1730 Roundtable/Closing